Procedure

The President, Vice President for Learning and Student Services, Dean of Health Sciences or Dean of Curriculum may allow exceptions to the dress code only on special occasions, such as Student Government activities. Further dress requirements may be prescribed by the above persons for certain classes, such as physical education, vocational, and health science classes.

Violations of the dress code procedures and regulations shall result in disciplinary action as follows:

1st violation: Verbal warning by instructor. Instructor will document the offense and forward a referral to the appropriate Dean and Vice president for Learning and Student Services for the record.

2nd violation: After speaking with the student and the situation cannot be resolved, the instructor will present an official letter stating concerns and suggested actions to the Dean of Curriculum or Dean of Health Sciences, the Vice President for Learning and Student Services and the President.

3rd violation: Administration will investigate the situation. Depending on the results of the investigation, the student will be subject to suspension and/or dismissal from the college for the duration of the semester or longer.
